Barrett Plumbing Acquired by Individual Entrepreneur Vance McClenton

WEST MICHIGAN - The Equity Group of Michigan is pleased to announce the sale of Barrett Plumbing, a renowned plumbing contractor serving West Michigan and the lakeshore for nearly 50 years, to Vance McClenton, an experienced professional.

Barrett Plumbing has built an outstanding reputation for service and quality, specializing in commercial, residential, and service work. The company's expertise spans large new construction projects, remodeling work, and both commercial and residential service calls.

Tom Zant of The Equity Group of Michigan facilitated the transaction. "We're confident that under Vance's leadership, Barrett Plumbing will continue to uphold its legacy of excellence and high standards for the West Michigan construction market," said Zant.

The acquisition includes Barrett Plumbing's well-maintained shop and service fleet, reflecting the company's commitment to quality and professionalism. McClenton plans to retain the existing team of experienced plumbers, ensuring continuity of service for the company's loyal client base. This transition marks an exciting new chapter for Barrett Plumbing, promising continued growth and exceptional service for West Michigan and the lakeshore community.
